TRUSTED • RESPECTED • PREFERRED

This annual publication lists not only established suppliers and their brands but it also regularly introduces new mainstream importers, local producers and details the emergence of artisan products that are building a place in the market. The Guide is distributed throughout the database of SupermarketNews magazine which includes named category buyers in chain banner groups and independents. The Guide will also be available online through our websites for international readers and subscribers. Make sure that your company and brands are included in the 2018 guide.

Return this form NOW, make sure that your name and brand is reinforced to retail buyers.
